1.1.3 Major Activities and Achievements

The campus has been running M.Ed., B.Ed., B.B.S. and B.Sc. programmes. It has recently launched M.Ed. programme specializing on English and Nepali under the affiliation of Tribhuvan University. Though dropout rate is alarming especially in higher level education in different academic institutions of Nepal, CMC has not faced this situation of and 35 student's enrollment in M.Ed. has proved how they are fascinated to earn M.Ed. Similarly, the main reason behind offering M.Ed. programme in this college is to stop daughter in laws, ladies and students coming from underprivileged and marginalized groups to go to Kathmandu valley in the name of pursuing master degree. Not only that but also to foster quality education at affordable fee structure, to produce higher level academic manpower and to uplift the society and nation by producing quality manpower compatible to markets. The campus hopes the M.Ed. programme has brought pleasing light on the faces of local people, guardians, students and authorities concerned. CMC takes M.Ed. programme as the milestone to make this location as a hub of education and this initiation leads to make this college as a deemed university as its future target.

The campus has also run co-curricular and extra-curricular activities to orient the students towards the practical value of theoretical knowledge. The extra-curricular activities include oratory context, poem symposium, essay competition, open talent show, cultural programmes with singing and dancing, sports competition like volleyball, table tennis, football, badminton and so on.

Besides from the academic activities in the campus premises, the campus has been conducting different social activities through students' participation in order to inculcate the sense of civic responsibilities and social services in them. The students are encouraged to participate in blood donation, environmental awareness programmes, and distributing fruits to the patients in hospital and old people in old people shelter on campus anniversary, collecting fund, necessary food and clothes and distributing in natural calamities to the victims.

The campus is one of the community campuses of TU. It has shown a substantial number of students for Bachelor programs. Similarly, some of the Master's programs like M. Ed. English and Nepali attract students in good number.

Much of the student experience at Chautara Multiple Campus is defined by its size: the campus is both geographically dispersed and immense in its resources.

For incoming students, success while at the campus often depends on identifying personal pathways through their undergraduate experience.
